U.S. News & World Report Recognizes 7 Springpoint Communities as Best Nursing Homes for 2025

Wall Township, New Jersey–November 25, 2024—Seven Springpoint communities have been recognized as “Best Nursing Homes” for 2025 by U.S. News & World Report. This evaluation rated nearly 15,000 nursing homes nationwide. The latest edition recognizes fewer than 20% of those facilities as “Best Nursing Homes” in “Short-Term Rehabilitation,” “Long-Term Care,” or both.

There are currently 346 nursing homes and skilled nursing facilities throughout the state of New Jersey, and 44 throughout the state of Delaware. These Springpoint communities are among a distinguished group to receive overall high-performance ratings:

- The Atrium at Navesink Harbor, offering independent living, rehabilitation, and skilled nursing, rated high performing in both short-term rehabilitation and long-term care, with an overall score of 5 out of 5.
- Meadow Lakes, offering independent living, assisted living, home care, memory care, rehabilitation, skilled nursing, and respite for seniors, rated high performing in short-term rehabilitation, with a score of 3 out of 3.
- The Moorings at Lewes, offering independent living, assisted living, memory care, rehabilitation, and skilled nursing, rated high performing in short-term rehabilitation, with a score of 3 out of 3.
- The Oaks at Denville, offering independent living, assisted living, home care, rehabilitation, and skilled nursing, rated high performing in short-term rehabilitation, with a score of 3 out of 3.
- Stonebridge at Montgomery, offering independent living, assisted living, home care, memory care, rehabilitation, and skilled nursing, rated high performing in long-term care with a score of 3 out of 3.
- Village Point Rehabilitation & Healthcare, offering long-term care, memory care, rehabilitation, and respite for seniors, rated high performing in both short-term rehabilitation and long-term care, with an overall score of 5 out of 5.
- Winchester Gardens, offering independent living, assisted living, home care, memory care, rehabilitation, skilled nursing, and respite for seniors, rated high performing in short-term rehabilitation, with a score of 3 out of 3.

To calculate these ratings, U.S. News & World Report evaluated each facility’s performance using a variety of quality measures obtained from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). This ratings methodology factors in several aspects of quality including resident care, safety medical outcomes, data on nurse staffing levels, consistency and retention, and success in preventing ER visits. This independent survey of diverse healthcare programs throughout the country reaffirms the work excellence of the clinical staff and rehabilitation teams at these seven Springpoint communities.
