Celebrating Excellence: Springpoint Recognizes 2025 Award Recipients

Springpoint President & CEO Anthony A. Argondizza at the 2025 Springpoint Leadership Summit with the President's Awards honorees, Teresa Daniels and Ryan Valli

WALL TOWNSHIP, NJ – April 10, 2025 – Springpoint hosted its 2025 Leadership Summit on Wednesday, March 26, bringing together teams from across its communities and affiliates for a high-impact day focused on collaboration, innovation, and the future of senior living.

Guided by a dynamic agenda, the event reinforced a shared commitment to compassionate, innovative service and energized leaders around future goals. “Today marks an important opportunity to reflect on our progress and energize our commitment to the future,” said Anthony A. Argondizza, President & CEO of Springpoint. “The ideas, strategies, and recognition shared throughout the day will strengthen our leadership and enhance the quality of care and service we provide.”

The program featured keynote speakers who delved into the evolving landscape of senior living and workplace culture.

- Emily M. Dickens, Chief of Staff, Head of Government Affairs and Corporate Secretary for SHRM (one of the world’s largest human resources trade associations), led an insightful presentation on “Leading with Civility: A Better Workplace for a Better World.”
- Jessica L. Israel, MD, Chief Medical Officer and Executive Vice President of Complete Care Management, specializes in geriatrics and palliative care. She led an informative discussion on “The Top 10 Issues Facing Older Adults Across the Care Continuum Today: A Geriatrician’s Perspective.” Dr. Israel is also a Springpoint Board of Trustees member presiding over the Professional Services Committee.

The Summit concluded with an awards ceremony celebrating individual, programmatic, and community achievements for service excellence and exceptional engagement across two categories: The Springpoint Excellence Awards and the President’s Awards.

“This is an important moment to acknowledge and celebrate those team members who have gone above and beyond in their duties, having shown an impressive level of commitment, integrity, and dedication to their profession,” said Mr. Argondizza. “Each award recipient truly encompasses the Springpoint mission, vision, and values through their dedication and outstanding service.”
